

ICT YEAR 9 – What we will be learning in ICT this half term

Spring Term 2 – Parents can help their child by:

- Planning: Having conversations regarding their planning documents. What went well, what could have been better and what they could do to improve their planning documents
- Learning spellings of key words which will be given to students during each topic
- Encouraging students to aim for distinction work: Parents/carers can ask students to share their tracker to establish and encourage them to improve their coursework to a higher level.
- Accessing YouTube videos on key concepts to support students in clarifying misconceptions
- Encouraging students to explore key ideas through further reading, TV programmes and the Internet

Content for this half term:

- Students will create a number of different planning documents that effectively proposes their interactive media product to their chosen audience.

ICT YEAR 10 – What we will be learning in ICT this half term

Spring Term 2 – Parents can help their child by:

- Exam Preparation: Talk through 'Exam Checklist' that students have been given and what each aspect of the checklist entails.
- Learning spellings of key words which will be given to students during each topic
- Encouraging students to aim for distinction work: Parents/carers can ask students to share their tracker to establish and encourage them to improve their coursework to a higher level.
- Accessing YouTube videos on key concepts of Serif Webplus to support students in clarifying misconceptions
- Encouraging students to explore key ideas through further reading, TV programmes and the Internet in regards to web design.
- Encouraging the use of Memrise to access support videos, exam questions and key words.

Content for this half term:

- Students will revise their internal assessment material whilst creating a fully working website that includes; logo, text, video, sound, animation, image manipulation and a functioning web layout and navigation system.

ICT YEAR 11 – What we will be learning in ICT this half term

Spring Term 2 – Parents can help their child by:

- Reviewing Planning: Having conversations regarding their planning documents for their website. What went well, what could have been better and what they could do to improve their planning documents
- Encouraging students to aim for distinction work: Parents/carers can ask students to share their tracker to establish and encourage them to improve their coursework to a higher level.
- Accessing YouTube videos on key concepts of Serif Webplus to support students in clarifying misconceptions
- Encouraging students to explore key ideas through further reading, TV programmes and the Internet
- Encourage the attendance of Intervention: Intervention is with Mr Brindley every Tuesday after school

- Content for this half term: Students will create a fully working website that includes; logo, text, video, sound, animation, image manipulation and a functioning web layout and navigation system.
- Students will research other key websites that match their target audience.
- Serif Webplus Web Creation Software