

Science YEAR 7 – What we will be learning in Science this half term

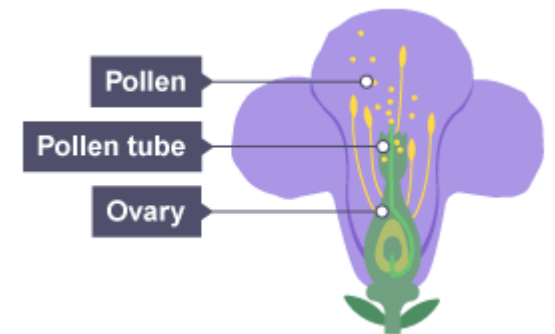

Summer 2 – Parents can help their child in Science by:

- Accessing the knowledge organisers on the website which provide key information to support each topic listed below
- Learning spellings of key words which will be given to students during each topic.
- Encouraging them to use a revision guide/workbook to re-visit gaps in knowledge and to consolidate learning at home.
- Accessing Youtube videos on key concepts to support students in clarifying misconceptions.
- Encouraging them to explore key ideas through further reading, TV programmes and the Internet.

Topics:

- Electromagnets – current resistance and voltage
- STEM Project

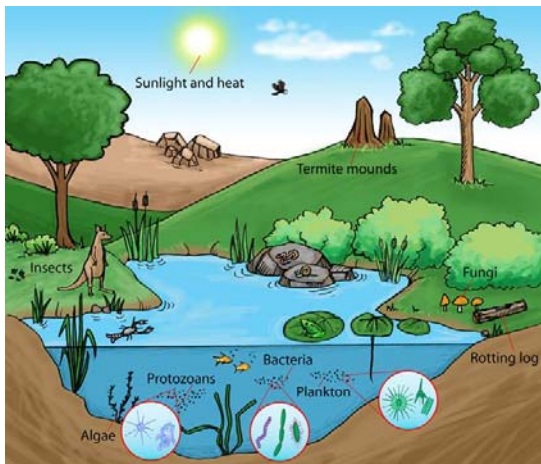

Science YEAR 8 – What we will be learning in Science this half term

Summer 2 – Parents can help their child in Science by:

Accessing the knowledge organisers on the website which provide key information to support each topic

- Learning spellings of key words which will be given to students during each topic listed below.
- Encouraging students to use a revision guide/workbook to re-visit gaps in knowledge and to consolidate learning at home.
- Accessing Youtube videos on key concepts to support students in clarifying misconceptions.
- Encouraging students to explore key ideas through further reading, TV programmes and the Internet.

Topics

- Waves – wave effects & wave properties
- STEM project

