1. We can only run courses where the numbers are sufficient. If a course is not viable we will contact you about selecting an alternative.
2. The choices you select above are the start of a series of discussions about which courses you will follow next year. You will have the flexibility to reconsider in discussion with Mr Brennan.
3. We will discuss the suitability of your choices with subject teachers.
4. Your application form should be addressed for the attention of Mr B Brennan, and handed in to Reception at the Upper School – by Friday 17 January 2020.
5. You will receive a conditional offer of a place, or an invitation to discuss your choices further, by March 2020.
